

CASE STUDY

SITUATION

Customer needed to add a secondary containment around some newly installed waste acid pumps.

AT A GLANCE

- Secondary containment was needed for newly installed waste acid pumps.
- Poured curbs with fast-curing mortar and applied an acid-resistant coating system.

PROJECT

RAK prepped the surface, poured curbs with fast curing mortar and installed an acid resistant coating system to isolate the pumps in the event of a spill.

PROJECT PICTURES

